

Title

This is a template of the 1-page contribution to the Scientific Report 2014-2016 of the Physics Department at Sapienza University of Rome.

Please, pay attention to the following instructions while preparing your contribution:

- Each contribution must be 1-page long;
- The filename should be `last_name_of_the_main_contributor.tex`, as in `fermi.tex`.
- Any acronym should be introduced at its first occurrence;
- Figures can be included in the standard way, cf. Fig. 1. `.pdf` format is preferred, but also `.eps` and `.png` can be used.
- The name of the  $N$ -th figure should be `last_name_of_the_main_contributor_figN.pdf`, as in `fermi_fig1.pdf`;
- Tables can be also included as in Table 1;
- References (max 4) can be introduced as in [1] and should be numbered in order of their appearance [2];
- Please note the reference style: First Author et al., Journal Volume Page (Year)
- For bibliographic entries with 4 or more authors<sup>1</sup>, please use “et al.” as in [1];
- The Authors list appears at the end of the document and contains the list of people (including researchers, postdoc, PhD students) involved in the research described by the contribution;
- If one of the authors is not a member of the Physics Department but is affiliated to external institutions (e.g., CNR, INAF, INFN, etc), please use the mark as in E. Amaldi<sup>X</sup> in the author list below; During the post-processing, we will take care of writing the correct affiliation number, which will appear in a different page;
- Please select the corresponding Subject Area: Theoretical Physics, Particle Physics, Condensed Matter Physics, Biophysics, or Astronomy, Astrophysics & Geophysics.
